

Washington Avenue Lenticular Truss Bridge
Waterbury
New Haven County
Connecticut

HAER No. CT-18

HAER
CONN.
5-WA1B,
2-

PHOTOGRAPHS

WRITTEN HISTORICAL AND DESCRIPTIVE DATA

Historic American Engineering Record
National Park Service
Department of the Interior
Washington, D. C. 20240

HISTORIC AMERICAN ENGINEERING RECORD

HAER
CONN,
5-WATB,
2-

Washington Avenue Lenticular Truss Bridge

HAER No. CT-18

Location: Over the Mad River on Washington Avenue
Waterbury, New Haven County, Connecticut

Date of Construction: circa 1880

Builder: Corrugated Metal Company (a predecessor of the Berlin Iron Bridge Company)

Owner: Connecticut Department of Transportation

Significance: This is one of only four lenticular trusses in the United States that was built by the Corrugated Metal Company.

Transmitted by: Donald C. Jackson and Jean P. Yearby, HAER, 1985